KIAMESHA MEETS DEFEAT

BEATEN OFF IN VESTAL

Santa Catalina Gallops to an Easy Victory in the Mud.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Washington, Nov. 29.—Santa Catalina, the Albemarle Stable's three-year-old filly, took full and complete revenge at the Bennings racetrack to-day for her defect by Kiamesha in the Dixle Stakes a week ago. Both filles started in the Vestal, at one mile and a half, and Santa Catalina raced to such a ridiculously easy victory that the followers of Kinmesha, which shares the honor of holding the world's record for one mile, looked on in blank dismay and in silence that was all but eloquent.

The track was a sea of mud and the weather conditions were most unfavorable, but racegoers braved all discomforts to see the two fillies meet again, and a good sized crowd was in attendance. Copper was the one lone favorite to reward the form players.

the one lone favorite to reward the form players. The first choices which went down to inglorious defeat were Mintia, Pacon, Kiamesha, Ben Hodder and Arrahgowan.

The Vestal was run as the third race, and when W. T. Powers added Mistiss five horses made up the field. Klamesha and Santa Catalina opened equal favorites at even money, but the Oneck Stable filly was in most demand, in spite of the fact that she had only beaten Santa Catalina a head in their last meeting at ten pounds in her favor. She only had five pounds advantage to-day, but went to the post a 9 to 10 favorite, while Santa Catalina went back to 11 to 10. The race was a procession. Klamesha has staled off or found the going against her, and was unable to make even the semblance of a struggle.

The first choices which went down to inglorious defeat were Mintia, Pacon, Kiamesha, Ben Hodder of the first defeat in nine starts. O'Neil unable to make even the semblance of a struggle, and suffered her first defeat in nine starts. O'Neil rode her hard to keep within striking distance of the pace, but to no avail, and before half the ourney had been covered she was a badly beaten Santa Catalina simply comped along in front as if it was only play, and Miller sat still and let her have her way. She won galloping by ten or twelve lengths and came back to the stand hardly draw ing a long breath. She is a lop eared, undersized filly, but she has plenty of speed and a big heart, and few there are who will dispute her title to be ranked with the best of her age. Mistress, the added starter, could hardly raise a gallon and be ranked with the best of her age. Mistress, the added starter, could hardly raise a gallon and pulled up lama.

Collector Jessup, Descend, Fancy Bird, Copper and Palette were the other winners. Descend was the medium of quite a killing in the second race. She was backed from 16 to 1 to 6 to 1 and came away easily at the end when Gentian tired. Palette ran a sensational race in winning the last. Off badly and outrun for six furlougs, she came with a great rush in the stretch and won by half a length. On the backstretch she was last and to all appearances hopelessly beaten, but Gordon persevered and finally brought her home. Arrangowan also made up a lot of ground and fought out the fulls gamely.

Ben Hodder, a horse of some class, owed his defeat in the luck of racing and poor handling in the six furiong sprint, fourth on the card. He was beaten a scant half length by Fancy Bird after being carried wide in the stretch turn and handicapped by Dickson's weak finish.

Wickford, heavily backed to win the second race, took the bir in his teeth going to the post and rank. took the bit in his teeth going to the post and ran away one mile before Dickson could pull up.

OLD GLORY SALE OVER.

Sold 1,014 Horses for a Grand Total of $428,450.

The eleventh annual Old Glory sale of light haress horses by the Fasig-Tipton Company came to an end at Madison Square Garden yesterday, and the grand total for the nine days of $423,430 is ample proof of the continued and ever growing strength of the market. Only twice before has this total been beaten. In 1101 920 hend sold for $499,355, including the Daly and Spier horses. Last year the total was $447,175, when Major Delmar, Sadle Mac, Dr. Strong and the famous Village Farm stud were disposed of. All things considered, this year's sale was even better, as on two days the stock was of a kind which brought the average down and made record figures impossible.

The weather was largely responsible for the somewhat smaller crowd than usual yesterday, but the falling off was not among the buyers, and the prices averaged better than on Tuesday. The sales ranged from $60 to $900, C. H. Harris, of Washington, paying the last named figure for the five-year-

While most of the college football elevens have been disbanded for the season, a number of games are scheduled to-day, chief of which is the meeting at Philadelphia between Pennsylvania and Cornell. This game has been a Thanksgiving Day feature for some years. The biggest game of the season in the West will also be played at Chicago between Michigan and Chicago. Fordham and Holy Cross will line up at Fordham Field, while two high-school games of more than usual interest will also be played in the Metropolitan district. The High School of Commerce will meet the McKinley Manual Training School of Washington, D. C., at American League Park, and "Poly Prep" and the Boys' High School of Brooklyn will fight for the interscholastic championship of Long Island at Washington Park. The leading games

Settle Gridiron Supremacy.

A football game which will decide the champion ship of the United States Army posts about New-York Harbor will be played to-day at Olympic Field, 136th-st. and Madison-ave., between the teams of Fort Jay, on Governor's Island, and Fort Slocum, on David's Island. Elevens from five forts have been playing a series of games throughout the season, and Jay and Slocum are so far in the lead that the winner of to-day's game will earn lead that the winter of the three title.

Both elevens are in the heavyweight division, and the game should prove highly spectacular. Each team will be reinforced by nearly a thousand rosters, headed by the post band. Lieutenant Farnsworth, the ex-West Point player, has been coaching the Governor's Island squad. The game will be called at 11 o'clock.

TRIP SPOILED BY FACULTY RULING. The action of the Columbia faculty in abolishing football has materially changed the plans of some of the football men. The association had planned to send E. T. Collins, quarterback, and A. Aigeltinger, centre, to see the Chicago-Michigan game tinger, centre, to see the chacagon game to-day. It was thought that Collins might get some points from the work of the wonderful Chicago quarterback Eckersall, while Aigeltinger was to watch the work of the line men. Five minutes before the men were to leave Tuesday night the announcement came that the game had been abolished, and as a result they stayed home.

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 22.—The cadets had their first hard practice game of the week to-day, and the work was full of snap, notwithstanding the drizzling rain, which had made the field soggy and for five touchdowns. The scrub failed to score, but when it had the ball much ground was gained.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Annapolis, Md., Nov. 29.—The navy football team went through a long signal practice this afternoon. There will be no further scrimmage until the team lines up against the army at Princeton on Satur-ley, fullback.

The only position still in any doubt, Dr. Dashiel said, was that of quarterback. There is really little question, however, that Decker will start the game. He is much more likely to get away for a long run than Norton, either from his position or in running back a kick. Norton has some ability as a drop kicker, and if that appears to be the best chance to score he will be sent in to try his fortune.

against Harvard will begin the game to-morrow against Cornell. Folwell may not be able to finish the game, but Mike Murphy says he is fit to enter the contest. Because of the heavy rain last night and nearly all day to-day Franklin Field will be soft to-morrow. It was the hope of the Quakers that the game would be played on a hard field, in which case they hoped to roll up a score of at least forty points against Cornell. They had planned an open game, using Stevenson, Sheble and Green frequently on end runs. Although Franklin Field is well drained and drys out quickly, it will be too soft to try many runs around the ends. This will change the Red and Blue attack, and Lamson, Folwell, Robinson, Hobson and Rooke will be the men called upon to gain the ground and, of course, this will mean straight line plunges.

Pennsylvania has not lost a game this year and has secured 253 points to her opponents' 28. Lafayette played the Quakers a tie game at 6 to 6, but Harvard was beaten 12 to 6, Columbia. 23 to 0; Brown 8 to 6, and the Carlisie Indians 6 to 0, among others. Cornell has had a disastrous season, not having won a single game of any prominence. Big scores were up against Hobart, Western University of Pennsylvania, Bucknell and Haverford, but she suffered defeat at the hands of Swarthmore 14 to 0. and J. H. Taylor finished first and second, respectively.

He first won the national open title in 1901, at Myopia, when he defeated Alec Smith, after a tie. He finished fifth the following year at Garden City, but regained his title in 1903 at Baltusrol, after a tie with David Brown. The next year, at Glenview, Anderson won with a score of 302, and this year he won once more at Myopia, after a poor start. His score was 314.

Last spring Anderson went abroad to compete in the open championship of Great Britain at St. Andrews, but went off his game on the first day, after previously making a 73 in practice. In an invitation tournament prior to the open Anderson qualified, but lost to Vardon at match play.

ACTRESS INSURES HER TOES.

Follows Lead of Kubelik, Who Took Out Policy on His Fingers.

Kubelik has insured his fingers. It is now uncunced at the Academy of Music that Miss Katherine Bell, a young actress and dancer who is playing the role of Jane in "Babes in Toyland" there, yesterday took out a policy in an accident insurance company—a policy which covers the possibility of the loss of the use of her feet and consequent inability to dance upon the stage. In other words, Miss Bell, it is said, has insured her feet for $10,000 each.

MUST PAY FOR FATHER'S EXECUTION.

Petition of Children of Virginia Ex-Mayor, the Toronto University eleven, champions of Can-Hanged for Murder, Refused.

This is the first international football match of any kind that has been played in Philadelphia for over thirty years. Ever since the Canadian and American styles of play have drifted apart there have been no meetings, and on that account the game of December 2 should draw students and alumni and the public as well to Franklin Field. The Pennsylvania eleven may surprise every one; it is a good team. It can hardly hope to win, but has been working faithfully, and a fast eleven has been secured considering so short a time of training. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Richmond, Va., Nov. 29.—Governor A. J. Mon-tague has denied the petition of the four children of J. Samuel McCue, ex-Mayor of Charlottesville. of his wife, that they be not required to pay the costs of the prosecution and execution of their father. The Attorney General held that the Governor was unauthorized to remit the costs.

Liederkranz Billiard Expert Beats Conklin in Close Game.

J. Ferd Poggenburg, of the Liederkranz Club, de-feated Charles F. Conklin, of Chicago, in the third match of the billiard tournament for the Eagla Gold Cup, at the Liederkranz Club, last night, by a score of 200 to 287, and now leads for the trophy. F. W. Gardner is second.

A coved of 30 to 30, and now leads for the trophy.

E. W. Gardner is second.

A crowd filled every part of the club's music room last night, in spite of the disagreeable weather. The game was close throughout, and many interesting shots were made by both men.

This is Possentians of the club's many interesting shots were made by both men.

This is Poggenburg's second victory, and his play in both games, especially the clever massé work, has made him a strong favorite for the cup.

The standing of the three men in the tournament

Conklin won the bank for the lend, and in the opening inning made a run of 10, while the best Poggenburg could do was to make 2. The end of the fourth inning found Conklin with a lead of ST. Poggenburg falling to make a count in the second, third -- fourth innins. The latter received generous applause in the fifth inning, when, by careful nursing and a few difficult cushion shots, he ran off a total of 40 points, and the inning closed with Poggenburg in the lead by a score of 42 to Conklin's 40.

with Peggenburg in the lead by a score of 42 to Conkiln's 40.

The sixth inning was marked by brilliant playing by both men, especially the work of Conkiln, who made a count of 50 and retired on the fifty-first shot, which seemed comparatively ensy. In this inning Poggenburg scored 20 buttons, and it closed with Conkiln in the lead, with a total of 101 to 12.

The best play of the three following innings was a difficult masse shot by Poggenburg in the hinting inning. With a run of 16 in the eleventh inning. With a run of 16 in the eleventh inning. For yendburg crept up to within 14 points of Conkiln's lead. His first two shots were long two cushion carroms, which called forth loud applause. With another good run of 40 in the fourteenth inning, Poggenburg passed Conkiln and led by 3 points, with a total of 15% to 12. A bank masse shot by Poggenburg in this inning was one of the most interesting of the game.

—ne seventeenth inning was also marked by fast play by both men. Poggenburg made a run of 40 while Conkiln clicked off 31, and the inning closed showing Poggenburg to have a count of 22 to Conkiln's 152. In the twentieth inning a run of 40 put Conkiln within 12 points of Poggenburg, and he passed him in the twenty-third linning, when he made 13 buttons with a total of 246 points for Conkiln to Poggenburg 212.

In the twenty-fourth inning Poggenburg showed fine form and rolled up 34 points, which again gave him the lead.

IMPORTANT GAME LAWS DECISION.

Having Imported Birds Out of Season Held To Be No Crime. Justices Woodward, Rich and Hirschberg, sitting in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, with Justices Miller and Jenks, handed down a decision yesterday, in which the two latter justices do not concur, to the effect that the having of game birds out of season, lawfully imported from a foreign country, where they had been killed lawfully, is no crime, and that the section of the Forest, Fish and Game law making it so is unconstitutional and vold. The case is one that will interest sportsmen, as well as dealers in game and hotel proprietors. The decision is in the case of John Hill, proprietor of the Clarendon Hotel, who was charged with the the Clarendon Hotel, who was charged with the offence, and the case of August Siz, of Manhatan, who sold twenty-four brace of imported birds to Mr. Hill. The two men were technically arrested, and were held by Justice Maddox for trial in his opinion Justice Woodward holds that the principle was exactly presented in the famous Buffalo fish case, which went to the Ceurt of Appeals. It is considered by lawyers as altogether likely that this now celebrated case will go to the Court of Appeals.
